BHS provides The BHS Focus, a monthly e-newsletter that can be used to promote your Assistance Program to your employees. The electronic newsletter provides tips and articles on a variety of well-being and skill-building topics and information on the featured Café Series webinar. We encourage you to share this with your employees.

BHS also provides crisis and disaster communications before and after significant events. These communications provide links to relevant resources, downloadable tip sheets and a link to the NEWS ALERT section of the MyBHS Portal. Here you will find additional resources that are updated throughout the event.

Looking at Happiness as a Choice
Are you a person who can act on tough questions? Questions like: What am I grateful for? What choices do I have? What change can I make to improve my life? What are my primary strengths? How can I live a more balanced life?

People who can act on these questions likely also describe themselves as happy.

“Happiness is neither a mood nor an emotion. Mood is a biochemical condition, and emotions are transitory feelings,” says Dan Baker, Ph.D., director of the Life Enhancement Program at Canyon Ranch in Tucson, Ariz., and author of What Happy People Know. “Happiness is a way of life, an enduring outlook comprised of qualities like love, optimism, courage, and a sense of freedom. It’s not something that changes every time your situation changes.”

Tips to Enhance Your Well-Being
How to Set and Achieve Professional Goals
If you want to accomplish something instead of drifting aimlessly, you have to set goals. Wherever is this more relevant than in today’s workplace.

“Setting professional goals is a game plan for yourself and your company,” says

Printable PDF Tip Sheets
Below are helpful tip sheets to use to help yourself and others begin to recover from severe weather. These resources give simple tips on preparedness techniques and coping methods.

- Power Outages
- Floods: What You Need to Know
- Indoor Safety: Keys to Disaster Preparation
- Helping Children Cope with Disaster

Additional Information and Resources
The following resources also provide useful information during this time:

FEMA Shelter and Disaster Recovery Center Locator (text message)
If you have been told to evacuate or feel unsafe in your current location, go to a designated public shelter. Text SHELTER + your ZIP code to 41444 (FEMA) to find the nearest shelter in your area (example: SHELTER 42335).

Red Cross Shelter Locator (online)
Find an open shelter here: https://www.redcross.org/help-center/disaster-relief-and-recovery/services/find-an-open-shelter.html

How to Build an Emergency Supplies Kit
The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) recommends that you have an emergency supplies kit with enough water, food and basic supplies to last each member of your household for at least 72 hours. Learn about what to include in your emergency supplies kit here: https://www.ready.gov/kit

Make a Family Communications Plan
Your family may not be together when a hurricane or other emergency strikes, so plan how you will contact one another. Get tips from FEMA on how to make a family communications plan here: https://www.ready.gov/family-communications-plan

Social Media
When disaster strikes, you can count on organizations like FEMA and the Red Cross to