The Americans with Disabilities Act – Section 504

Voluntary Accommodation Revocation Form

(Student Name)_________________________________________ has voluntarily and willfully revoked accommodations set forth by the ADA Counselor under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 at Piedmont Technical College for the following educational activity:

______________________________________________________.

The student understands that this voluntary revocation will only be applied to this specific activity and the previous accommodations will be reinstated for all future activities.

Date: ________________________________________________

Student Signature: __________________________________

Instructor Signature: _________________________________