For example, many South Carolina residents qualify for the $5,000 Life Scholarship (current funding level). Out-of-state students may qualify for the Residential Scholarship, which is up to $3,000 awarded annually and is renewable for up to four years.

Columbia College scholarships will be limited to no more than the difference between tuition, room and board and the total of all other aid (state, federal and outside scholarships). Any student seeking Financial Aid (state, federal) in the form of loans and grants must complete the Free Application for Student Aid (FAFSA) at www.fafsa.ed.gov.
