RATIONALE

Why do I need this course?

COL 103 provides students with real-world strategies for coping with the challenges of academics and life in general. The foundations of academic and life success – goal setting and self-responsibility – are reinforced by providing students opportunities to think in depth and practice these important concepts. College Skills presents a new approach to study skills addressing the changing world of students, addressing how they learn, how they study and how they are in terms of managing time, stress, problems, and communications.
